

ALAN R. JONES '50 TRAVEL FELLOWSHIPS

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY ▪ GRINNELL COLLEGE

PROPOSAL GUIDELINES

Applicants for an Alan R. Jones '50 Travel Fellowship must provide a typed, double-spaced proposal of not more than 2,000 words explaining how they plan to use the grant money if awarded. The proposal should provide a description of the project's genesis, its central question or goal, a research plan, an itinerary, and a complete itemized budget. Travel must adhere to college guidelines for student travel: see the "MAP Student Travel Guidelines" webpage for details. The department will consider proposals only if accompanied by the signature of the faculty project director or the applicant's academic adviser.

Recipients of Alan R. Jones '50 Travel Fellowships must submit a written report, suitable for distribution to history students and faculty, explaining their use of the funding and benefits of the research.

Application Deadlines: October 1; December 1; February 15; May 1. The fellowship committee may award grants after each round, contingent on funding availability. Please check with the history department chair prior to each deadline to see whether funds are available.

Please submit a hard copy of your completed proposal to the HSSC North administrative office (HSSC*N3175) or submit it electronically (as a pdf) to De Dudley (dudleyd@grinnell.edu). If you opt for electronic submission, please be sure to have the project director or academic adviser indicate her/his support in an email with the subject "Jones Signature" to the same email address.
