

Selective
Liberal Arts
Consortium

Do you know what these two programs are?

*Read below and log onto www.slaconsortium.org
or get more information
from the Career
Development Office*

These are two programs sponsored by the Grinnell College Career Development Office and the Selective Liberal Arts Consortium (SLAC) and are designed to link graduating seniors with employers.

Coast to Coast Virtual Fair

The Consortium will be reaching out to employers who are looking for strong liberal arts graduates to fill entry level positions. Employers will post their job openings on the eRecruiting website.
(<http://slac.erecruiting.com>)

- ✓ An online job fair program with over 30 jobs
- ✓ Apply to as many organizations as you have interest in
- ✓ Apply from March 23 – April 6 by 11:59 pm PDT
- ✓ Employers will contact students directly

Science Resume Books

The Consortium will proactively be reaching out to several science related organizations by sending electronic resume books to Human Resources departments and alumni/ae contacts.

Requirements:

1. On your resume you need to include:
 - relevant course work
 - research experience
 - leadership experience
2. Submit to the appropriate book based on your major:
 - Environmental Sciences • Computer Science/Math
 - Life Sciences •
 - Physical Sciences • Behavioral Sciences
3. Students need to have their resume reviewed by the Career Center before they apply

FYI: The job titles for the resume books are: “Science Resume Book 2008-2009 – Environmental Sciences”; “Science Resume Book 2008-2009 – Computer Science/Math”; “Science Resume Book 2008-2009 – Life Sciences”; “Science Resume Book 2008-2009 – Physical Sciences” and “Science Resume Book 2008-2009 – Behavioral Sciences”

STUDENT RESUME DEADLINE: MONDAY, APRIL 6 BY 11:59 PM PDT.

TO APPLY: <http://slac.erecruiting.com>:

- In the Consortium’s online system, click on the “Jobs & Internships Search” on the top bar.
- On the left side, under “1-Click Searches”, click on “Coast to Coast Virtual Fair” or “Science Resume Books”.