

December 17, 2008

Volume 3 Issue 5

The Marketplace Messenger

Communicating Grinnell College Dining Services
news of interest to our diners

The information contained in this publication is designed to be read on your computer. Due to the use of various fonts and pictures, printing this publication may result in reduced readability.

By not printing this publication, you are assisting Grinnell College Dining Services in its goal to reduce, reuse, and recycle as much as possible.

Thanks for helping us remain as "green" as possible!

Dining Plan Changes for Spring Semester

Any student wishing to make a change in their dining plan for spring semester should submit that request on-line before leaving campus for winter break. Meal plan choices from first semester will be carried over to second semester unless another request is submitted. Individual meal plan eligibility is based on class standing and housing location. Please note that first-year students have the option of plans 1 or 2 only. This information, including full descriptions of the meal plans, is available on the dining website www.grinnell.edu/offices/dining. Final deadline for second semester changes is January 30. Thank you!

Final Meal – Friday Night

The final board plan meal of the semester will be served Friday evening from 5-6pm in the historic Quad dining hall on south campus. Please note this change in location as there will not be a board plan meal served in the Marketplace this evening.

We sincerely trust you will have a restful and profitable break and we look forward to serving you once again in January.

End of Semester Notices

The Marketplace

- The last meals in the Marketplace for the semester will be Friday, December 19. Breakfast and lunch will be served at regular times. Dinner for students on meal plans will be served from 5-6 pm and relocated to the Quad Dining Hall on south campus to accommodate the President's annual holiday dinner for faculty and staff.
- Out Takes will close for the semester on Thursday, December, 18 at 10 pm. Regular schedule resumes on Monday, January 19, 2009
- Regular meal schedules will resume on Saturday, January 17 when dinner will be served from 5-7 pm.

The Spencer Grill

- The Spencer Grill will be closing for the semester on Friday, December 19 at 2 pm.
- The Spencer Grill will re-open for regular hours on Sunday, January 18, 2009

A Note About Chocolate Soy Milk

The following communication has been received from WhiteWave™, the maker of our Silk™ Soy Milk ...

"I need to inform you that WhiteWave will not be producing the Chocolate Silk bag n box for the upcoming 2009 Spring Semester. I appreciate your willingness to test the product. While we have decided to not produce the product this spring, our Brand team has indicated we might revisit the item for the Fall 2009 Semester."
John Trimble
WhiteWave

The end of the semester will be the end of chocolate soy milk for the foreseeable future. If conditions change and the product is reintroduced, Grinnell Dining will evaluate the possibilities at that time.

Thanks for all the positive input regarding the product!

This publication is produced by Grinnell College Dining Services (641-269-3661)

Grinnell College Dining Services

Fueling the bodies that power the minds of tomorrow's innovators!