At Grinnell College we believe parents have the primary responsibility for contributing to the educational costs of their children. While divorce or separation may affect the extent to which one or both parents can contribute, it does not absolve either parent of this obligation. In situations of divorce or separation, it is our policy to request financial information from both parents.

If your parents are divorced or separated, please have your non-custodial parent complete and return this form to the Grinnell College Office of Student Financial Aid. We cannot review your eligibility for financial aid until we have a complete Non-Custodial Parent's Statement. If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact our office.
