The following information provides a summary of your rights and options after filing a complaint of sex discrimination, sexual harassment, sexual violence, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking at Grinnell College. Please contact the Title IX Coordinator or Deputy Title IX Coordinator for Case Management if you have any questions about this information.

General Information

- Options. Once you have made a complaint, you have several options, including, but not limited to:
  - A support person/adviser of your choice
  - Seeking personal counseling
  - Contacting parents or a relative
  - Seeking legal advice
  - Pursuing legal action against the perpetrator
  - Pursuing disciplinary action
  - Requesting that no further action be taken
  - Requesting further information about the investigation and resolution process

- Notifying Authorities. If requested, the Title IX Coordinator or Deputy Title IX Coordinator for Case Management will assist you in contacting local law enforcement regarding the incident. You may decline to notify such authorities.

- Protective Orders. If you have obtained or obtain a temporary protection order or other no contact order against the alleged perpetrator from a criminal, civil, or tribal court, you may provide such information to the Title IX Coordinator, Deputy Title IX Coordinator for Case Management, and Campus Safety. If provided, the College will take all reasonable and legal action to implement the order.

- Requesting Changes to Your Current Situation or Other Protective Measures. Please inform the Title IX Coordinator or Deputy Title IX Coordinator for Case Management if you wish to change your academic, living, transportation, or working situation, if you want information about taking a leave of absence and related financial aid information, or if you want any other specific protective measure to be implemented. The College will make such remedies available or provide such protective measures if requested and if they are reasonably available regardless of whether you choose to report the incident to local law enforcement. The College has a list of many At-a-Glance handouts that can be helpful throughout the process available at www.grinnell.edu/sexualrespect.

- Preservation of Evidence. It is extremely important that you preserve evidence as it may be necessary to prove the complaint you are making or needed to obtain a protection order. In the case of physical violence, including sexual assault, domestic violence, and dating violence, you should go directly to the emergency room and should not bathe, urinate, douche, brush teeth, drink liquids, or change clothes until after you are examined and, if necessary and you so choose, a rape examination is completed by a trained forensic professional at the hospital. Having a forensic examination does not obligate you to file criminal charges. Evidence in electronic formats should also be retained (e.g., text messages, emails, photos, social media posts, screenshots, etc.). This type of evidence is important and may be the only available evidence in cases of sexual harassment or stalking.
Institutional Procedures

Grinnell’s policy governing these types of complaints is available at: The Grinnell College Policy, Procedures, and Guide to Preventing, Reporting, and Responding to Sexual Misconduct and Other Forms of Interpersonal Violence The procedures:

- Will provide a prompt, fair, and impartial resolution of your complaint, under the evidentiary standard of preponderance of the evidence, i.e., more likely than not that the alleged conduct occurred.
- Are carried out by College officials who have received training on these issues and how to conduct an investigation and hearing process that promotes safety and accountability.
- Provide you and the respondent the right to have a support person/advisor of your choice accompany you to all aspects of the investigation and resolution process. A support person/advisor may not advocate for a party like an attorney would in court.
- Ensure that both you and the respondent will be notified simultaneously in writing of the outcome of all stages of the process, including any appeals.
- Prohibit retaliation by the respondent or anyone else against you for making a complaint or against anyone else for participating in the investigation.
- Prohibit retaliation by you against the respondent or against anyone else who participates in an investigation.

If you desire to have a support person/advisor but cannot find someone that you are comfortable with, please contact the Title IX Coordinator or Deputy Title IX Coordinator for Case Management for assistance in doing so.

Possible Protective Measures and Sanctions

- Protective Measures. At any time during the investigation, the College may impose protective measures for the parties or witnesses for the protection of those involved and to ensure equal access to the College’s educational programs and activities. These may include separating the parties, placing limitations on contact between the parties, suspension, campus ban, or making alternative living, class-placement, or workplace arrangements.

- Sanctions. If there is a finding that a violation of College policy has occurred, sanctions may include counseling or training, separation of the parties, and/or discipline of the respondent, including written reprimand, probation, suspension, campus ban, demotion, termination, or dismissal.

Confidentiality

If you request confidentiality or ask that a complaint not be investigated, the College will take reasonable steps to investigate and respond to the complaint consistent with the request. However, the College’s ability to respond may be limited in such cases, and the College may not be able to grant such a request when the respondent poses a continuing threat to the College community.

Throughout the investigation of your complaint, the College will maintain as confidential any remedies or protective measures provided to you, to the extent maintaining such confidentiality does not impair the College’s ability to provide such remedies or protective measures.

Grinnell is required by law to make certain statistical disclosures of crimes reported to it. If you report an incident that is a crime, the College will make the statistical disclosure without disclosing personally identifying information about you.

Student Financial Aid

Some victims of sexual misconduct may consider taking a leave of absence from the College. If you are considering such action, please keep in mind that there may be financial aid implications. The Title IX Coordinator or a Deputy Title IX Coordinator can assist you in contacting the appropriate personnel in the financial aid office in order to ensure you have an understanding of the financial aid issues that may arise from a leave of absence. Here is a link to the College’s financial aid website: https://www.grinnell.edu/financial-aid.
