Title IX Interim Remedies At-A-Glance

Interim remedies that may be applied to the Complainant, Respondent, and Witnesses include, but are not limited to:

- Coordinating access to medical and counseling services and assistance in setting up initial appointment, both on and off campus
- Campus No-Contact Order or No-Trespass Order
- Assistance in obtaining a civil protection order
- Facilitating a meeting with law enforcement to discuss safety planning and law enforcement options
- Limiting an individual or organization’s access to certain College facilities or activities pending resolution of the matter
- An interim restriction on residence hall access pending the outcome of a conduct proceeding
- An interim suspension, ban, or paid/unpaid leave pending the outcome of a conduct proceeding
- Coordinating rescheduling of exams and assignments (students only)
- Coordinating alternative course completion options (students only)
- Coordinating a change in class schedule or transferring sections, including the ability to drop a course without penalty (students only)
- Connection to academic support services, such as tutoring (students only)
- Suppression of directory information
- A change in work schedule, job assignment, and office/work space
- A change in student’s College-owned residence (students only)
- Assistance from in completing residence relocation (students only)
- Providing a safety escort between classes, work, and other activities
- Assistance in resolving concerns about immigration status, visas or financial aid
- A voluntary leave of absence
- Any other remedy which can be tailored to the involved individuals to achieve the goals of this policy