Tutoring

From the Academic Advising Office, Grinnell College JRC 3rd floor, x3702

Tutoring in Humanities and Social Studies

The Academic Advising Office employs trained and academically successful Grinnell students to provide individual and small group tutoring sessions to any enrolled student needing assistance. Contact Hanna Armstrong at X3702, Lukowicz@Grinnell.edu or stop at Academic Advising any time during office hours.

The Tutoring Program in the divisions of Social Studies and Humanities offers tutoring in these subjects:

- Anthropology
- American Studies
- Art
- Classics
- Economics
- Education
- English
- French
- Gender, Women’s, and Sexuality Studies
- History
- Linguistics
- Music
- Philosophy
- Religious Studies
- Russian
- Sociology

Language Labs

For tutoring in Arabic, Chinese, Japanese, and Spanish, contact your instructor for time and location.

Tutoring in Sciences, Mathematics and Computer Science

Tutors for the sciences (Biology, Chemistry, and Physics) work through the Science Learning Center (x3015). Tutors for Psychology can be obtained by contacting Barbara Brown in the Psychology Department (x3171). Tutors for Mathematics and Computer Science courses are available through the Math Lab (x3060).

Additionally, assistance with writing assignments and reading comprehension may be obtained through the Writing Lab (x3117) and Reading Laboratory (x3118). Further, the reference librarians will assist you with research questions through the Library Lab (www.grinnell.edu/academic/librarylab).