

NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION

Welcoming you to a community that thrives on individuality, diverse perspectives, and opportunities for all.

Welcome to New Student Orientation

This program of events is designed to introduce you to your overall experience at Grinnell College. There will be opportunities for you to meet new friends and be introduced to the people who will support you throughout your academic career. You will discover resources available to enhance your academic and social wellness and learn more about the community in which you will live. During the next few days, we hope you learn a lot, prepare thoughtfully for the beginning of classes, and have a great time. We're glad you're here!

Student Arrival Checklist

Before 1 p.m., have you:

- Completed the check-in process in the Harris Center concert hall?
- Filled out your employment forms? Bring an original form of identification that has not expired (see the Acceptable Documents List at www.uscis.gov/i-9-central/acceptable-documents for what to bring) and head over to Harris Center, Cinema. This option is available from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., so beat the rush and go early!
- Obtained your parking permit at Office of Campus Safety on the corner of East Street and 10th Avenue? You will need to know your license plate number, make, model, year, and color of your vehicle.
- Downloaded the NSO App using Google Play, Android Apps, or the App Store. Look for “Grinnell College Events” and have the NSO schedule and resources at your fingertips.
- Subscribed to the campus emergency notification system? Sign into GrinnellShare and search for “Office of Campus Safety.” Once on this page, select “Pioneer Alert” link. Follow the instructions.
- Added Office of Campus Safety’s phone number on your phone? The phone number for the Office of Campus Safety is 641-269-4600 – please add it to your phone! The office can help with everything from emergencies to getting locked out of your room!
- Checked your campus mailbox? Do you have any holds? Sign into GrinnellShare to find your mailbox combo. Then go to the mailroom and check your mailbox for any hold certificates.
- Connected to the wireless network and installed Office Pro Plus on a personal computer? In your campus mailbox there is a document called “Technology Guide for Students.” It is filled with helpful information including how to connect to the wireless network, how to add public printers to your computer, and install Office Pro Plus on your computer. If you need any assistance, you can visit the help kiosk in the Joe Resenfield Center during orientation or the technology services desk in the Forum. It is open 8 a.m.–5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Friday, August 23

-  9 a.m.–1 p.m. New Student Check-In/Residence Hall Move-In

 Meet your NSO group leaders at your color group meeting site before heading to your first community value session.

-  1:15–2:15 p.m. Community Value I: Self-Governance (Students Only)
Harris Center, Concert Hall
 Self-governance is a foundational part of our Grinnell community. This important session will help you understand your role as an engaged member of the community. Student leaders and residence life staff will engage new Grinnellians in discussion about how we apply self-governance in our community.
- 1–2 p.m. Supporting Your Student's Health And Wellness (Families only)
JRC, Room 101
 Join Deb Shill and Paul Valencic from Student Health and Wellness (SHAW) as they facilitate a conversation about how to provide support to students in making wellness-related decisions and accessing important resources such as health services and counseling services.
- 2–3:30 p.m. Sex, Drugs, And Rock 'N' Roll (Families Only)
JRC, Room 101
 First-year college students are presented with dozens of decisions every day about how to get involved in our campus culture and how to navigate decisions that impact their wellness. In this session, parents and families will learn about self-governance, its impact on the student experience, and about campus and community wellness resources. Strategies for supporting students in a developmentally-appropriate way will be offered, with time for Q&A. Wide-ranging wellness topics include: sleep, stress, alcohol and other drugs, and sexual respect. Presenters: Jen Jacobsen '95, assistant dean for health and wellness; and Ben Newhouse, dean of students.
-  2:30–3:30 p.m. Floor Meeting (Students Only)
Various residence halls
 Directly after the self-governance session, you will break into groups and meet your community adviser. You've met your roommate and introduced yourself to the person across the hall, so now it's time to meet all of your first-year neighbors! You'll also have a full floor meeting after classes begin to meet the returning students living in your community.

4–5 p.m.

Community Values II: Getting Into Grinnell

Hotel Grinnell, 925 Park St.

Welcome to Grinnell! The local community is excited to welcome the newest members of the Grinnell College family. This session will introduce different aspects and offerings of the greater Grinnell community. Students and families are invited to explore the local community resources found in this vibrant small town. This session will consist of two separate parts: a fair of local business and resources in the Hotel Grinnell ballroom and a series of videos featuring student perspectives in the Hotel Grinnell auditorium. Students will know where to go first based upon their color group assignment.

4 p.m.

Hotel Grinnell auditorium (red, blue, orange, and yellow groups)

Hotel Grinnell ballroom (green, purple, pink, and silver groups)

4:30 p.m.

Hotel Grinnell auditorium (green, purple, pink, and silver groups)

Hotel Grinnell ballroom (red, blue, orange, and yellow groups)

5–7 p.m.

Dinner With Your Family

JRC, Marketplace Dining or downtown Grinnell restaurants

Have one last meal as a family to say goodbye before students begin an exciting and busy orientation program. You have the option to eat at any of the restaurants in downtown Grinnell or return to campus and eat in the JRC Marketplace.

7 p.m.

10 a.m.–4 p.m.

SGA Hangout

HSSC, Room N1116

SGA will host an all-day hangout experience during the first part of NSO. This will be a space where students can relax, take a breath, and regroup without being alone. SGA members will staff the lounge, facilitate social connections and build community.

10:20 a.m.

Meet Your NSO Group Leader

Meet your NSO group leaders at your color group meeting site before heading to the next Community Value session.

10:30 a.m.

Community Values IV: Value of the Liberal Arts

Harris Concert Hall

Faculty and students will discuss the importance of the liberal arts in their specific disciplines and in their overall education. This session will celebrate how courses from across the curriculum contribute to the liberal arts experience and set the stage for academic planning with your faculty adviser.

- 11:30 a.m.–1 p.m. Lunch On Your Own
JRC, Marketplace Dining
- Noon–1 p.m. Interreligious Brunch with CRSSJ
JRC, Room 101
Join student religious and spiritual group leaders and the religious life team from the CRSSJ for an informal brunch. You will have the opportunity to learn about campus life and connect with current group leaders. You will also be able to ask questions about the town, the region, and what is possible for religious observance here in the cornfields/prairie. Whether you are Jewish, Muslim, Christian, “meditative,” Unitarian/Universalist, Quaker, seeking, denying, secular, atheist, and more, we would like to meet and welcome you!
-  1 p.m. Transfer Student Academic Advising Meeting
JRC, third floor, Conference Room
Staff from the registrar’s office will provide information on registration procedures, transfer credits, and other relevant topics. This event is required for all transfer students.
-  1–3 p.m. First Tutorial Class
Tutorial classroom; check your personalized schedule
Information regarding the location of your tutorial classroom can be found online through the WebAdvisor portal. This required first class meeting allows you to introduce yourself to your faculty adviser and classmates and schedule individual advising meetings.
- 3–5 p.m. Foreign Language Orientation and Placement Session
Ancient Greek: HSSC N3111    Japanese: HSSC N2110
Arabic: HSSC N1114        Latin: HSSC N3111
Chinese: HSSC N2112       Russian: HSSC N2150
French: HSSC N3160        Spanish: HSSC N2118
German: HSSC 3114
The foreign language departments invite all new and transfer students to the Foreign Language Orientation and Placement Session. Students can meet faculty and current majors to learn about courses open to first-year students, study abroad, and other opportunities for using foreign languages on campus. The appropriate rooms for specific languages are listed above and will be posted in HSSC first-floor hallway. No language study is required to attend the session. However, for students who have studied a language in high school or college, or who have lived in an environment where a foreign language was spoken, please note the following: Some departments will administer a diagnostic assessment during the placement session, while others will have already indicated a course placement based on school records and communicated that placement to the student via mail or email. Students who have experience in two foreign languages should consult faculty at 3 p.m. to figure out how to proceed.

-  5:30–7:30 p.m. Dinner and Data
JRC, Marketplace Dining
Join your NSO group for dinner and complete some surveys that will contribute to important institutional research. Dinner times are staggered by color group to avoid meal-time logjams.
5:30 p.m. — blue, green, pink groups
6 p.m. — yellow, orange, silver groups
6:30 p.m. — purple, red groups
-  7:30 p.m. Community Value V: Sexual Respect in a Self-Governing Community
Harris Concert Hall
Students will learn about community standards and expectations regarding sexual respect on our campus and be prompted to reflect upon their own values and decision-making processes.
-  8:30 p.m. NSO Small-Group Meeting
Check your personalized schedule
In small groups, students will practice effective communication skills related to boundaries and consent. Students will also learn about to spectrum of resources available and meet many of the key staff that can support them. If you need to opt out of this NSO group time for the purpose of self-care, your NSO group leaders will understand.

- 9:45–11:30 p.m. A Night Of 1,000 Options
Various locations
At Grinnell, we go big because we don't want you to go home. There's something for everyone tonight across campus. You won't be bored, but you may get tired exploring the various options for entertainment across campus. Check out the full list of events below!
- 9:45-11 p.m. 2023 Pub Quiz With SGA
Bob's Underground, Main Hall
Pub Quiz is a weekly game of trivia that is a true Grinnell tradition! At Pub Quiz our lovely SGA cabinet will be spilling all the tea about Grinnell and important things you must know to survive. There will be yummy snacks and drinks provided as well as fun SGA giveaways and a prize for the winning team!
- 9:45-11 p.m. Bingo
JRC, Room 101
Nothing says "welcome to college" like a night of free stuff! Come to JRC 101 and win some free prizes: Snacks, college swag, gift baskets, and more could be yours. At the end of the night there will be a raffle drawing for the big prizes. Come and go as you please; stay for a while or just for enough rounds to win something. Did we mention that it is free?
- 9:45–11 p.m. [Freesound] Open Jam Session
Gardner Lounge, Main Hall
Stop by [freesound], the self-run hub for student music on campus, for an open jam session. [freesound] provides a rehearsal space loaded with instruments and equipment for student musicians and puts on awesome shows and festivities on and off campus throughout the year. Swing through Gardner Lounge to hear some tunes, meet [freesound] leaders, talk to other musicians, and join the jam! Instruments (guitars, bass, drums, keys) are provided, but we encourage you to bring your own if you are able.
- 9:45–11 p.m. QTPOC Theater
Bucksbaum Center for the Arts, Room 154, Wall Performance Lab
QTPOC (Queer + Trans People of Color) Theatre Collective is a recent addition to the Grinnell community and is looking for new members open to making, sharing, and celebrating art from their queer + trans peers of color. Esther, one of the founding members of the collective, will be running a workshop to introduce the collective and show examples of our creative process!

Mission statement: We are an intentional (but not exclusive) creative space and community for artists who identify as queer and/or trans persons of color. The collective will meet to share and learn new processes for making work, as well as perform and showcase art for the community. This organization will connect with an alumni artist collective for Grinnell graduates of color

- 9:45–11 P.M. Pokémon Go
Meet at Commencement stage
For those who play Pokémon Go, we are hosting a scavenger hunt using the VR mode feature in the game! Take pictures at various destinations on campus with your favorite Pokémon and show them to us to win prizes! Also share your trainer code on our master list to find in-game friends and trading partners!
- 9:45–11 p.m. Grinnell Queer Quorum
Stonewall Resource Center (Yunker Pit)
Kick back and decompress from the various group meetings and activities of NSO in the Stonewall Resource Center (SRC), Grinnell's student-run LGBTQIA+ space in Yunker Pit. Drop in for as long or as little as you like to partake in tasty snacks. No icebreakers! No formal scheduling! Just a relaxed place to meet each other and mingle in peace.
- 10–11 p.m. Glow-In-The-Dark Capture The Flag
Mac Field
Brighten up NSO with some glow-in-the-dark Capture the Flag! All you need is to bring yourself; we'll explain the rules and provide you with as many glow sticks as you can handle.
- 10-11 p.m. S'mores With The Grill Club
Cleveland beach (outside Cleveland Hall)
Good bites. Good vibes. Good times. Come join the Grill Club on Cleveland beach to make your own s'mores! (There will be vegan and gluten-free options.) Come by, grab a bite, and make some new friends!

- 9:45–11:30 p.m. Improv! Improv! Improv! Improv!
Laurel Leaf Lounge
 Join four of Grinnell’s student theatre groups — Almost Always Improv, Infinite Coincidence, Bad Improv, and Neverland — for an improv workshop! Whether this is your first time or your 100th time doing improv, you’re welcome to join us. Stop by to play lots of different improv games, meet new people, and learn what these wacky organizations are all about!
- 10 p.m.-11:30 p.m. Open Mic Night
Main Hall Lounge
 Bring your guitar, poetry, jokes, or whatever you feel for a cozy, casual chance to showcase your talents. We’re betting your new classmates are pretty talented too, so come and support them. An NSO assistant will be stationed at the entrance to the lounge with a sign-up sheet, starting at 9:30 p.m.
- 10 p.m.–Midnight Movie Night: *Spiderman: Into The Spiderverse
JRC, Room 209
 Looking to relax with your new friends? Come watch Spiderman: Into the Spiderverse hosted by Movie Night, a sub-free club that gathers to watch fun movies tailored to weekly themes and participant requests. Snacks are provided (gluten-free, nut-free, and vegan diets accommodated).

-  9–10:30 a.m. Campus Resource Tour – Red, Blue, Orange Groups
 Visit the locations of the important offices and departments on campus. You’ll be introduced to key resources and learn how they can support your academic success and personal wellness. If the assigned time conflicts with another mandatory event, students may choose a different time to attend the tour. Communicate with your NSO group leader for alternative options.
- 10 a.m.–4 p.m. Relaxation Zone
CRSSJ Prayer Garage
 This will be a space where students can relax, take a breath, and regroup without being alone. We’ll have coloring pages, self-guided breathing exercises, mini Zen gardens, chill sounds, water to drink, fruit to eat, puzzles, and cards.

10–11 a.m. Passport to Dining Employment (Mandatory For Dining Employees)
JRC, Marketplace Dining
Visit each port of call in the Marketplace to complete your passport for employment with Grinnell dining. This session will provide information necessary to sign up for work shifts and be prepared for your first day of employment. *Attendance is required for students who have been hired by Grinnell dining. This is a high-priority training session. (First of two different sessions offered.)

10 a.m.–Noon Art And Chocolate Extravaganza
Bucksbaum Center for the Arts, rotunda, Grinnell College Museum of Art
Grinnell College Museum of Art welcomes new students to campus and invites you to view an exhibition of works from our collection, make art to decorate your dorm room, help glitter the “sparkle truck,” and eat as much chocolate as you can, dipping a variety of treats in our chocolate fountain.

 10:30 a.m.–Noon Campus Resource Tour – Yellow, Green, Purple Groups

11:30 a.m.–12:30 p.m. First-Generation Student Lunch
JRC, Marketplace, Whale Room
Are you a part of the first generation in your family to attend college? Come connect with other incoming first-generation students and talk to current first-generation student leaders about the experience of transitioning into Grinnell life and being a part of the Grinnell community!

11:30 a.m.–1 p.m. Lunch On Your Own
JRC, Marketplace Dining

Noon–1 p.m. Bridging The Gap: Gap Year /Transfer/ Nontraditional Student Lunch
JRC, Marketplace Dining, Room 224A
Did you take some time before coming to Grinnell? Come meet other “nontraditional” students, share your stories, and ask current Grinnellians how they managed the transition. Gap year, transfer, and other nontraditional students are all welcome! Grab your lunch and join others in this private dining room, upstairs within the Marketplace.

 1–2:30 p.m. Campus Resource Tour – Pink, Silver Groups

1–2 p.m. My Actions Speak Louder Than My Words – Ethical Service
JRC, Room 101
Learn about how you can become part of the community by volunteering or work, through the Service-Learning Work-Study Program, Alternative Breaks, and connecting with more than 80 local, nonprofit community partners!

2–2:30 p.m. Student Employment at Grinnell
JRC, Room 209
So, you’ve filled out your paperwork, now what? There are many policies and procedures surrounding student jobs on campus; this session will introduce you to how things happen here. From using the time clocks, to figuring out what this whole “NOVAtime” thing is all about, and what to do if you want to look for a new or different job, we will show you resources and answer your questions about student employment on campus. (First of two sessions offered.)

2–3 p.m. Approaching Math And Science: Strategies For Success In Your First Intro Course
JRC, Room 101
A panel of faculty from biology, chemistry, computer science, math/statistics, physics and psychology will give an overview of and dispel myths about the courses that first-year students typically enroll in. This panel is hosted by Grinnell Science Project and is open to ALL new students.

- 2:30–3:30 p.m. Passport to Dining Employment
JRC, Marketplace Dining
 Visit each port of call in the Marketplace to complete your passport for employment with Grinnell Dining. This session will provide information necessary to sign up for work shifts and be prepared for your first day of employment. *Attendance is required for students who have been hired by Grinnell dining.  Meet your NSO group leaders at your color group meeting site before heading to the next community value session.
-  7:30 p.m. Community Value VI: Living Equity Daily in a Self-Governing Community
Harris Center, Concert Hall
 “Living equity daily” is a value and way of being that we believe is essential to life at Grinnell. In this interactive community workshop, we will consider how our individual experiences and stories influence the ways we “show up” and have an impact on our community. We hope all Grinnellians develop a consciousness for equity, orient their authentic selves toward social justice, and practice inclusive behaviors on a daily basis in every aspect of their lives.

NSO Small-Group Meeting

Check your personalized schedule

Students will meet with their small-group leaders to further discuss the community values session that was recently presented. Refer to GrinnellShare and your personalized schedule for your specific location.

Observatory Open House

Grant O. Gale Observatory

Guided tours will depart from the front entrance of Bear Center at 10 p.m. and 10:20 p.m. Professor Robert Cadmus will introduce this unique Grinnell treasure. Tours will occur even in the event of cloudy skies; 20–30 people per tour.

-  7:30 p.m. Community Value VII: Wellness And Self Care
Harris Center, Concert Hall
Planning for your wellness is essential for you to engage fully in your Grinnell experience, including academics! In this session, you’ll develop strategies for creating and maintaining personal sustainability, become more familiar with the resources available to assist you, and consider how you can contribute to the well-being of your new community.
-  8:30 p.m. Meet Small Group Meeting
Check your personalized schedule
Students will meet with their small-group leaders to further discuss the community values session that was recently presented. Refer to GrinnellShare and your personalized schedule for your specific location.
- 9:45–11 p.m. [Weekend] Event
JRC, first floor, Spencer Grill
[Weekend] is when we all take a break from stress, relax, make memories, and have fun! Every weekend during the school year, [weekend] hosts awesome and creative events to have fun. Our events encourage all aspects of student wellness and are always substance-free! Join us in painting, board games, and more! Add to that free food and mocktails? It’s an event you can’t miss!
- 9:45–11 p.m. Tiny Dorm NSO Concert
JRC, Room 222, SGA office suite
Tiny Dorm is a student collective that showcases students’ talents and fosters community through small concerts that are hosted in dorms across campus. Come to the first event on campus to meet and support student artists in a fun, creative, collaborative (and small) space.
- 9:45–11 p.m. Walmart Shuttle
Meet outside the JRC
Catch a ride to Walmart and pick up anything you may have forgotten. Bus will leave promptly at 9:45 p.m.! Due to limited space, no large purchases will be allowed (e.g., bikes, large furniture).

SAAC Night (Mandatory For Athletes)
Bear Center, Darby Gymnasium
SAAC (Student-Athlete Advisory Committee) Night is an event where all student-athletes, returning and new, come together the night before classes begin. Our SAAC reps, athletic director and faculty athletic rep will speak about the leadership opportunities that exist in the athletic department and how to navigate being a student-athlete at Grinnell College. This event is led by SAAC, which is composed of a representatives from all varsity teams at Grinnell and acts as a voice for all student-athletes.

8:30–10:30 p.m.

Nerf At Noyce
Noyce Science Center, Room 1022
Nerf is a great way to blow off steam from a week of classes — or in this case start the school year off right by hitting your friends with projectile foam darts! We'll play some of our classic games, like Capture the Flag and Humans vs. Zombies (among others), and you'll get to familiarize yourself with the most confusing building on campus! It's a win-win for everyone, so whether you come by for just one game or stay to stake your claim on Nerf dominance, be there or be square.

Thursday, August 29

- 7 a.m.–8 p.m. Dining Hall Resumes Regular Hours
- 8 a.m.–3:50 p.m. First Day Of Classes
- 9 a.m. What's That Sound?
Listen carefully, but don't be alarmed: Poweshiek County tests its severe weather sirens every Thursday at 9 a.m. If you hear this at another time, seek shelter.
-  11 a.m.–Noon First-Year Scholars' Convocation
JRC, Room 101
Throughout the academic year, convocations will be held on Thursday. Get in the habit of attending convocation by going to this special NSO version, which will be hosted by Office of Intercultural Affairs staff.
- 3–6 p.m. Farmers Market
Corner of Fourth Avenue and Broad Street
Check out Grinnell's local farmers market! You'll find the area's freshest produce, delicious baked goods, and beautiful handmade items for gifts and mementos. The market is every Thursday afternoon (3–6 p.m.) and Saturday morning (10 a.m.–noon) until late October.
- 7–8 p.m. Global Fellowship And Award Info Session
HSSC, Room N3110
"Somewhere, something incredible is waiting to be known." — Carl Sagan
Grinnell College nominates students for a variety of prestigious, nationally competitive fellowships every year. Be curious, engaged, confident, and inspired. Meet Ann Landstrom, assistant dean and director of global fellowships and awards, to obtain information on fellowships, when to apply, and how to navigate your college experience to prepare an application.

 9–10 p.m.

Floor Meeting

Various residence halls

This will be your first floor meeting with all residents, including returning students. Meet your hallmates, reconnect with your community adviser, and explore self-governance within your residence hall.

Accessibility

Students with disabilities are entitled to reasonable accommodations on campus. An accommodation is any adjustment, modification, or service that allows an individual to experience fuller access to an environment. At Grinnell this may mean additional time for an exam or a supplemental set of notes for a student with a learning disability, a room on a first floor for a student in a wheelchair, a service dog, or the use of an assistive learning technology such as Read and Write Gold for a student with difficulty reading text on a computer. Students are also able to request accommodations for fuller access to New Student Orientation.

Student accommodations are coordinated and supported by the Office of Disability Resources. To learn more about the accommodation process consider attending Navigating Grinnell: Services and Supports for Students with Disabilities, or contact John Hirschman, coordinator of student disability resources, at 641-269-3089 or hirschma@grinnell.edu to schedule an appointment.
