Title IX Pregnancy and Parenting Remedies for Students At-A-Glance

- Access to medical and counseling services and assistance in setting up initial appointment, both on and off campus
- Rescheduling of exams and assignments
- Providing alternative course completion options
- A change in class schedule or transferring sections, including the ability to drop a course without penalty
- Early registration for classes
- Early access to course materials
- Access academic support services
- Release from College residence
- Assistance from College staff in completing residence relocation
- A voluntary medical leave of absence
- Reinstatement to the same academic and extracurricular status as before any medical leave
- Access to private space for lactation
- Assistance with connection to child care and health care
- Assistance in coordinating parenting and breastfeeding classes and support groups
- Assistance with transportation to medical appointments
- Any other remedy which can be reasonably tailored for the involved individuals to achieve the goals of this policy

These remedies are available to all pregnant and/or parenting students.