Title IX Supportive Measures At-A-Glance

Supportive Measures available to the Complainant, Respondent, and Witnesses include, but are not limited to

- Facilitating access to medical and counseling services and assistance in setting up initial appointment, either on or off-campus.
- Guidance in obtaining a sexual assault forensic examination.
- Facilitating a meeting with law enforcement to discuss safety planning and law enforcement options. Assistance in arranging rescheduling of exams and assignments and extensions of deadlines or other course related adjustments.
- Academic support services.
- Assistance in requesting long-term academic accommodations through Accessibility and Disability Services if the individual qualifies as an individual with a disability.
- Coordinating a change in class schedule or transferring sections, including the ability to drop a course without penalty.
- Coordinating alternative course completion options.
- Allow either a Complainant or a Respondent to drop a class in which both parties are enrolled in the same section.
- Modifications of the Complainant's or Respondent's College work schedule or job assignment.
- Change in work or campus housing locations.
- Assistance navigating off campus housing concerns.
- Assistance in completing residence relocation.
- Campus escort services and other safety planning steps.
- Increased security and monitoring of certain areas of the campus.
- Leaves of absence.
- Mutual "no contact order," an administrative remedy designed to curtail contact and communications between two or more people.
- Referral to resources to assist in obtaining a civil protective order.
- Referral to resources to assist with financial aid, visa or immigration concerns.
- Any other reasonably supportive measure that does not unreasonably burden the other party's access to education and that serves the goals of this policy.
