

Grinnell College Education Department Secondary Teaching Licensure Program Advising Guide

#104 K-12 ESL – Updated March 2022

This worksheet will assist you and your advisor in planning your courses.

EDUCATION DEPARTMENT REQUIRED COURSES FOR LICENSURE

Introductory Required Courses
	EDU 101	Principles of Education in a Pluralistic Society	4 credits
	EDU 102	Participant Observation in Schools	2 credits

Four credits from the following:
	EDU 210	Historical Perspectives on U.S. Education	4 credits
	EDU 211	The Politics of Educational Assessment	4 credits
	EDU 213	Cultural Politics of Language Teaching *Required for 18 credit ESL endorsement	4 credits
	EDU 214	Critical Literacy	4 credits
	EDU 215	Reading and Writing Youth and Youth Cultures	4 credits
	EDU 217	Comparative and International Education	4 credits
	EDU 218	Place Based Education	4 credits
	EDU 295	Education Special Topic	2-4 credits

Education Department Upper-Level Required Courses
	EDU 221	Educational Psychology	4 credits
	EDU 250	Differentiating Instruction for All Students	4 credits
	EDU 340	Research and Methods in Teaching the Young Adult	4 credits
	EDU 346	Research and Methods in Teaching and Learning ESL/Bilingual Education	2 credits

Student Teaching Semester Courses
	EDU 460	Seminar in Teaching the Young Adult	2-4 credits
	EDU 469	Student Teaching Internship in the Disciplines	4-8 credits

K-12 FIELD EXPERIENCE

80 hours of K-12 based field experience are also required. 10 of those hours must be completed in an ethno-racially, linguistically, and/or culturally diverse placement.

GENERAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS

Students must complete coursework in each of the following content areas. AP credit, courses taken S/D/F, and courses taken at other institutions can fulfill these requirements.

	American History or Government
	Humanities
	Mathematics
	Natural Sciences
	Demonstrated Proficiency in Writing (met by Tutorial)

Grinnell College Education Department Secondary Teaching Licensure Program Advising Guide

#104 K-12 ESL- Updated March 2022

Special topics courses (295, 395), OCS coursework, independent, directed and mentored advanced projects (299, 399, 499), and other classes with relevant content to the endorsement area may serve as substitutions if those courses are reviewed and granted permission by the appropriate education department faculty member. Permission to substitute courses must be granted in writing and recorded in the student's electronic folder.

ESL Endorsement Requirements: 18 semester hours to include:

- 1) Knowledge of Pedagogy
 - Methods and curriculum
 - Bilingual and ESL methods
 - Literacy in native and second language
 - Methods for subject matter content
 - Adaptation and modification of curriculum
 - Assessment to include language proficiency and academic content

Knowledge of Pedagogy- 2 credits
	EDU 346	Research and Methods in Learning ESL/Bilingual Education (Required)	2 credits

- 2) Knowledge of Linguistics
 - Linguistics to include psycholinguistics/sociolinguistics
 - Language acquisition/proficiency
 - Knowledge of first and second language acquisition
 - Knowledge of first and second language proficiency
 - Language to include structure/grammar of English

Knowledge of Linguistics- 4-8 credits
	LIN 114	Introduction to General Linguistics (Required)	4 credits
	LIN 216	Syntax	4 credits
	LIN 228	Linguistic Typology	4 credits
	LIN 250	Language Contact	4 credits
	LIN 317	Language Change	4 credits
	LIN 375	Advanced Linguistic Analysis	4 credits
	PSY 355	Psychology of Language	4 credits
	SPN 343	The Art of Language	4 credits
	SPN 384	Spanish Dialectology	4 credits
		Linguistics course per advisor approval	4 credits

- 3) Knowledge of Cultural and Linguistic Diversity
 - History
 - Theory, models, research
 - Policy, legislation
- 4) Current issues with transient populations

Knowledge of Cultural and Linguistic Diversity and Current Issues with Transient Populations- 4-12 credits
	EDU 213	Cultural Politics of Language Teaching (Required)	4 credits
	ANT 104	Anthropological Inquiries	4 credits
	ANT 277	Anthropology of Global Migrations	4 credits
	EDU 214	Critical Literacy	4 credits
	EDU 215	Reading and Writing Youth and Youth Cultures	4 credits
	LAS 211	Intro to U. S. Latinx Populations	4 credits
	PCS 101	Introduction to Peace and Conflict Studies	4 credits
	POL 259	Human Rights: Foundations, Challenges, and Choices	4 credits
	SOC 280	Bound by Borders: A Sociology of Law and Migration	4 credits
	SOC 275	Race and Ethnicity in America	4 credits
	SOC 370	Members Only: A Political Sociology of Citizenship	4 credits
	SPN 317	Readings in U.S. Latinx Literature and Culture	4 credits
	SPN 320	Cultures of the Spanish-Speaking World	4 credits
	SPN 379	U.S. Latinx Identity and Sexuality	4 credits
		Advisor approved course	