

Title IX Pregnancy and Parenting Remedies for Students At-A-Glance

- Access to medical and counseling services and assistance in setting up initial appointment, both on and off campus
- Rescheduling of exams and assignments
- Providing alternative course completion options
- A change in class schedule or transferring sections, including the ability to drop a course without penalty
- Providing academic support services
- A change in student's College-owned residence
- Assistance from College staff in completing residence relocation
- A voluntary medical leave of absence
- Reinstatement to the same academic and extracurricular status as before any medical leave
- Access to private space for lactation
- Assistance in coordinating education, child care, and health care
- Assistance in coordinating parenting and breastfeeding classes and support groups
- Any other remedy which can be reasonably tailored to the involved individuals to achieve the goals of this policy